On account of the moving of the Library, and the poor health of the previous Librarian, the ordering of a new list of books has been delayed, but a list of same is nearly made up, and will be ordered soon, which will include some very good and instructive reading.

Another school year has rolled around and it must be generally conceded that our schools, as a whole, have been very successful. We are sorry to say that there are a few instances where scholars were allowed by parents to absent themselves from school more than seemed necessary. If you are not interested in your own children to send them to school, you must not complain if their teacher sometimes neglects her duty.

The Twin Grammar school was taught by Miss Lucia S. Alger, of Stratford. She worked hard and earnestly for the good of her pupils, and we hope that none of them failed to appreciate her labors and make the most of their opportunities.

The primary school was taught by Miss Sophronia T. Rosebrook. Miss Rosebrook gave her pupils thorough instruction, and used her term in imparting useful knowledge in a way which was beneficial to each pupil.

At the Fabyan school, taught by Miss Florence Jenness, we observed good order and that the attendance was good through the year. We wish that all parents might see that punctual attendance is the key to the success of their children in the school room.

The spring term at Zealand was taught by Miss Della C. Burbank. This was her first experience as a teacher and she did good work as a beginner.

The winter term was taught by Miss Hattie E. Miles, this being her third term here.

The Town house school in the spring was taught by Miss Iua M. Brown. The advancement during the term was highly commendable.

The fall term was taught by Miss Martha Merfield, of Massachusetts. Am sorry to say that the order was not what it should be.

The winter term was taught by Miss Clara C. Pinkham a normal teacher. The roll of honor was the largest in town, in proportion to the number of pupils.

Harry W. Rosebrook was in charge of Cherry Mountain school. The order was good, and the school room neat. No. pupils 7, perfect attendance 2.

The Pine Grove school was taught by Miss Laura A. Rosebrook. Miss Rosebrook made her pupils ambitious by the very force of her own example, and maintained excellent order with but few words.

Miss Mary Monahan was in charge of Applebee school. We are sorry to see such poor attendance in this school. It seems almost as though the money is wasted where parents are not interested enough to send their children to school.

A large number of pupils were on the roll of honor one term or more, but we find only eight names on the roll for the entire year. We record their names with pleasure and wish there were more. Primary room, John Kelly, 7 years; Elworth McMillan, 6 years. Grammar room, Jennie H. Brown and Sidney O. Brown. Fabyan school, Florence, Charlie and Eddie Allen. Cherry Mt. school, Almada Rines.

We can not help but feeling proud of our own town teachers. The fact that our teachers have been retained through the year shows that they have given general satisfaction. Let each citizen encourage in all ways the advancement of education. And in resigning this trust to your hands, let me express the hope that our schools may increase in efficiency and usefulness, and be a source of pride to all.

Most respectfully,

MRS. M. F. BROWN, Superintendent.
